Please have someone in the Senior meeting today remind all Seniors to come hear Mary Beth Tinker tomorrow (9/20) 5th Period in Kulp Auditorium. Seniors are being excused from their 5th period class, so they must find and sit near their Government or Economics teacher so that those teachers can take attendance.

Mary Beth Tinker was in 8th grade when she and her brother and a friend wore black armbands to school to protest the Vietnam War. They were suspended from school, their parents sued the school district and their case made it all the way to the Supreme Court, where the court ruled in favor of the Tinkers saying that students (and teachers) do have the right to free speech in schools.
